Our recommendation

The Certificate in Data Protection

It is our recommendation that individuals who take Unit 1 also take Unit 2. Unit 2 is designed to specifically complement Unit 1 so that individuals have a full understanding of dealing with user rights, breaches, consent and day to day data protection policies.

Why choose: Midshore's Certificate in Data Protection?

Data Protection Practical Application:

- Gives the candidate a thorough knowledge how to practically apply data protection legislation in the workplace.
- Provides successful candidates who also complete the Regulatory Unit a Certificate in Data Protection.
- Can also be taken standalone for those who wish to simply learn the application aspects, reporting and consent mechanisms of data protection.
- This course is only available from Midshore Consulting.

All candidates will receive CPD certificates of 7.5 hours per unit.
