

CERTIFICATE IN DATA PROTECTION EXAMINATION SPECIFICATION:

DATA PROTECTION REGULATION (GUERNSEY) UNIT

OBJECTIVE OF THE EXAMINATION

The objective of the examination is to ensure candidates have a knowledge of the regulations and legislation underpinning data protection.

The examination will test a candidate's knowledge and understanding of the following elements:

- Background to the current data protection environment
- General Provisions of the General Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law
- Data Protection Regulators
- Data Controllers and Data Processors
- Rights of the Data Subject

EXAMINATION SPECIFICATION

The examination paper is constructed from a specification that determines the weightings that will be given to each element.

Element	Element Name	Questions
1	Background to the current data protection environment	5
2	General Provisions of the General Data Protection (Bailiwick of Guernsey) Law	9
3	Data Protection Regulators	8
4	Data Controllers & Data Processors	10
5	Rights of the Data Subject	8
Total questions		40

ASSESSMENT STRUCTURE

A 50-minute examination of 40 multiple choice questions.